Our History...

Our Golf Club first opened its doors in 1920, James O'Shea was the first president and C.W. Appleyard was the first secretary. Membership fees in 1920 were $10 for each man and $5 for each lady.

We have come a long way since then. The golf course layout was redesigned in 1992 and expanded to 18 holes. This renovation created 13 new holes and incorporated 5 of the original holes in the layout you see today. During the construction, tons of Granite rock that was removed which lead to our name change. "Granite Pointe" was submitted by member Gordon Eagleson.

The building you sit in today was built in 1998 to replace the old clubhouse that was lost to fire damage on Jan 1st, 1998. The history of this Club is a storied one; we hope you have a part in writing the next chapter.

If you work at it, it's golf."
